Landscape: Inverse Perspective
Lecture and Workshop by Masako Yasuki
Monday, April 20, 2015
5:00-6:00pm

Artist Masako Yasuki will briefly introduce her own work and discuss the traditional and contemporary Japanese artistic and cultural practices that inform it. She will then demonstrate the use of gold leaf in her work, and give attendees a chance to try out this technique.

Yasuki received a MFA from Kyoto Seika University in 1994. She has shown her work in Japan, Russia, Korea, and the UK as well as at the Smith College Museum of Art. She has been a visiting artist at Smith College, Amherst College and the Edinburgh College of Arts.
